

Unit title	1 st Year Unit 2: Covenant- Are Promises Important?
Duration	14 hours
About this unit
RE Curriculum Directory	“The action of God in the unfolding history of this covenant relationship and the variety of human response is revealed in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament.” “God’s Self-Revelation and the covenant relationship reach their fullness in Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son God.” (p. 14)
Learning Objectives: AT1 and 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Know about the exile of the Chosen People. o Identify similar aspects in the lives of people today. • Know about the return from exile and God’s plan for the Chosen People. o Think about what they mean for us. • Know how the birth of John the Baptist was foretold. o Reflect on what we can learn from it. • Know and understand about the Annunciation and Visitation. o Reflect on what we can learn from them. • Know and reflect on the prophecy of Zechariah. o Consider the message it has for us today. • Deepen our understanding of the birth of Jesus, o Think about how this event has shaped our lives. ☐ To understand the vocation of religious Brother (link the theme of promise to the evangelical counsels). ☐ To understand the spread and journey of the Christian Brothers worldwide. ☐ The Eight Essentials- the commitment to making our school a Christian community
Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ‘The Way’ Chapter 2 - Electronic resources in the following folder: T:\Subjects\RE\KS3\1st\Unit 2 God's Promises Fulfilled
Assessment	Essay task: “God’s power is greatest when we place absolute trust in Him.”